CONGRATULATIONS

Paul Tully has been selected by the AOH as the 2018 Grand Marshal because of his consistent and tireless work on behalf of the Irish Cultural Center Hudson Valley (ICCHV). Working with students at Ulster Community College to develop the original concepts for a building; chairing the event when the Irish Ambassador to the United States came here to support the ICCHV; submitting grant applications; planning for and attending countless developmental meetings throughout the years; and regularly supporting the many activities of the AOH and ICCHV are just some of the reasons for which Paul has been chosen.

Paul lives in High Falls with his wife of 48 years, Lauren, who is a member of the LAOH. He is very proud of his three children and six grandchildren, and of his Irish Heritage. Both of his grandmothers were born in Ireland, coming over here as teenagers, one from Tipperary and one from Waterford. Each married a young man who had been born here, but whose parents were born in Ireland.

In 1889, immediately after arriving in the Port of New York, Paul's paternal grandmother, Mary Lynch, traveled to see her cousin in High Falls. Her cousin was a watchman for the D&H Canal Company and resided near Lock #14. Years later, after marrying and having six children, three of her children would find a home here in Ulster County.

The history on Paul's maternal grandmother's side is similar. His maternal grandmother would marry and have ten children and have a house in Rosendale. Regarding those many aunts and uncles, Paul related one story about an uncle who was a Jesuit and served as a Chaplain in WWII for the famous Fighting 69th. Father Steve Meany had been seriously wounded during the battle of Makin Island, in the South Pacific, and, in 1947, was chosen to be the Grand Marshal of the St. Patrick's Day parade in New York City.

In addition to serving on the Building Committee of the ICCHV, Paul also is very active in the community. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Friends of Historic Kingston (FOHK), and regularly conducts walking tours of both the Rondout and the Stockade National Historic Districts on its behalf.

MAYOR OF THE DAY
2018 ST PATRICK'S PARADE
JIM BRUCK

Jim was born in Kingston where he has lived his first 74 years. His Irish ancestry, the Sweeney Clan, left Ireland three generations ago. He retired in 1998, following 33 years in industry. Since then he has worked as NY Metro North Market Coordinator and is presently a NYS driving instructor. He has three sons, eight grandchildren and one great granddaughter all living in the Nashville area. One granddaughter relocated back home. Jim is proud and happy to be married to an LAOH member and our 2015 Mayor of the Day, Rose Ferraro Bruck.

An avid golfer and woodworker Jim spends much of his time volunteering. He is our landscaping coordinator at ICC, a Rondout crowd control fixture at parade time and works the entire Hooley. Jim is also a volunteer for Peoples Place, Alapaha Golf, Catskill Mountain Railroad, UC Senior Learning Center, St. Peters Kingston and Catholic Charities. Jim is appreciative and honored for being selected Mayor of the Day and is looking forward to representing our organization on St. Patrick's Day.

He loves going to school. His favorite subject is math. Evan enjoys playing baseball and basketball, but he loves to play on his travel soccer team the best. He is a big New York Yankee fan and can name all the players and enjoys keeping everyone up to date on what is happening whenever they have a game. Evan also participates in benefits to support a cure for cancer because he is a childhood survivor of rhabdomyosarcoma. Evan was honorary captain of the KHS football team in 2013 and was also invited to football camp with Sterling Shephard of the NY Giants and was honored by Chris Mullin at St. John's University at a "Dribble for a Cure" event. Evan is an active, fun loving boy who is happiest when playing with his brothers and sister, his cousin Anthony and his friend Austin.

THE HISTORIAN'S CORNER

Contributing Reporter Neil Murray

" A FESTIVAL OF MEMORY"

As we begin to prepare for the St. Patrick's Day celebration we can again look to one of my heroes, General Thomas Francis Meagher. If you recall, Meagher, the subject of a previous article, was an Irish Patriot who became an American Civil War hero. In 1855 Meagher referred to the St. Patrick's Day parade as a "festival of memory". Religious memory, cultural memory, and of family memory. To Meagher, the parade reminded him of the old country. Of home. Today we rejoice in St. Patrick's Day as a celebration of our cultural and ethnic identity.

But when was the first St. Patrick's Day parade or celebration in America? Interestingly enough, on March 17, 1757 at Fort William Henry on Lake George, the Irish soldiers who were garrisoning the fort at this northern frontier outpost celebrated the feast day of their Patron Saint. Knowing this, the French decided to attack the fort under the suspicion that it would be caught off guard, as the men celebrated. Although this notion was correct, the garrison of the fort was able to repel this assault.

As the British gain control of North America with the end of the French and Indian War, they maintained a large fighting force, many of whom were Irish, stationed in New York. Two British infantry regiments in particular, the 16th and 47th Regiments of Foot were primarily Irish. On March 17, 1762 we have the first recorded St. Patrick's Day parade. New York City has the honors of hosting this historic event. Every year since, this "festival of memory" parades through the city as a show of Irish pride, culture, and identity. Today across the United States and around the world millions celebrate their cultural identity and history by enjoying St. Patrick's Day.

One of New York's greatest traditions, the March 17, 1762 parade comprised mainly of Irish exiles and Irish military members. This was a time when the wearing of the green was a sign of Irish pride but was banned in Ireland itself. Ironically enough, the first recorded parade was not in Ireland, but, in New York City! Today the parade marches up 5th avenue with a review by his Eminence, Cardinal Dolan. Since its beginnings a march past St. Patrick's Cathedral hasn't changed, but, it's address has. Originally the parade marched past "Old" St. Patrick's, now a Basilica on the corner of Mott and Prince streets.

Originally organized by military units, after the War of 1812 and with the formation of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, the parade was sponsored by individual societies. But even today, the military tradition hasn't been lost. Leading the parade is the 69th New York, the "Fighting 69th", the Irish regiment. It was in 1853 that the Ancient Order of Hibernians first marched. The NYC parade has been a fixture in the city's social, political, and cultural life ever since. John T. Ridge, author of the history of the parade indicated the parade was "to show the newly arrived immigrants as respectable citizens worthy of esteem in American society". In 1891 the AOH adopted the familiar parade route today, up 5th avenue.

St. Patrick's Day is a uniquely Irish holiday, and yet is celebrated in more countries around the world than any other national holiday. There is no corner of the globe the Irish have left unvisited, and there is none where they have settled that has been more deeply shaped than has New York. There is no denying the preeminence of New York's St. Patrick's Day parade. Last year over 400 marching bands, pipe and drum, police, fireman, and scores of others added up to 200,000 marchers with over 2 million spectators.

As we celebrate St. Patrick's Day this year, remember the words of General Meagher. The NYC parade, the oldest and longest running parade in the world is a "festival of memory". But so is our own Kingston parade, the Hooley at the Hall, and all that we do locally to remember Ireland's Patron Saint.

Sláinte,
Neil

Starting January 1, 2018, the Irish Show and Radio Kingston become a non-profit under the ownership of the NOVO foundation. As such we can no longer accept paid advertising. We can still have friends to whom we can still wish "top of the morning". We want to thank our long-time sponsors and encourage our listeners to continue their support of their services. Our sponsors were Little Italy/Mariner's Harbor, Fitz's Liquor, Kingston Catholic School, Bill Cloonan Attorney at Law, Chic's Family Restaurant and Sports Bar, P.J. Gallagher and Sons, Joseph V. BETTY CROCKER RECIPES

ONE-POT LEMON-BASIL ORZO AND VEGETABLES

- Prep 20 MIN
- Total 35 MIN
- Servings 5

Lemon and fresh basil give this light-yet-satisfying dish its bright flavor, while the orzo, chick peas, zucchini and tomatoes complete

Ingredients

3tablespoons olive oil
 2medium zucchini, cut into 1/4-inch slices
 1medium onion, chopped
 2cloves garlic, finely chopped
 8oz uncooked orzo pasta (1 cup)
 1 1/2 cups Progresso™ vegetable broth (from 32-oz container)

1 can (14.5 oz) Muir Glen™ organic fire roasted diced tomatoes, undrained
 1 can (19 oz) Progresso™ chick peas, drained, rinsed
 2 teaspoons grated lemon peel
 ½ teaspoon salt
 ¼ teaspoon pepper
 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 ¼ cup julienned fresh basil leaves

Steps

1 In 12-inch nonstick skillet, heat 1 tablespoon oil over medium-high heat. Add zucchini; cook 2 to 3 minutes, stirring occasionally, until zucchini is lightly browned. Transfer zucchini to plate.

2 Add remaining 2 tablespoons oil, the onion and garlic to skillet. Cook and stir 2 to 3 minutes or until softened. Add orzo; cook and stir 2 to 3 minutes or until orzo is lightly toasted. Stir in broth, tomatoes, chick peas, lemon peel, salt and pepper. Heat to boiling; cover, and reduce heat to low. Cook 8 to 10 minutes or until most of liquid has absorbed and orzo is almost tender.

3 Add zucchini and lemon juice to orzo mixture; stir to combine. Remove from heat, cover and let stand 3 to 5 minutes or until all the liquid is absorbed. Stir in basil, and serve.

Cooking lemon juice dulls its flavor. For that reason, we add the lemon peel early in the cooking process but save the juice for the end so it can retain its bright flavor.

NEXT MEETING

6:30 PM

MARCH 13 , 2018

DIVINE MERCY ROOM
ST. MARY'S ST PETER'S CHURCH
KINGSTON, NY

Welcome to the month of March when we celebrate St. Patrick's Day and all the related activities involving our faith and our heritage and when we can really start feeling spring in the air!

Thank you to those who volunteered to make Grand Marshal's Night a huge success. Thank you especially to Kathleen Houghtaling for chairing this event. It was a grand night, as always, because of the help of so many. Kathleen Mihm is chairing the Mayor of the Day luncheon (sponsored by the LAOH) which will be held on Friday, March 16, at Little Italy beginning at 12:00 noon. The price is $22. E-mail Kathleen (kathleenmihm@aol.com) or call Pam Boyle (901-1465) or Chrissie Wrixon (339-7442) if you plan to attend. The choices are a corned beef and cabbage dinner, sole Francese with roasted potatoes, or pasta. Prior to the luncheon, Mass will be celebrated at St. Mary's/St. Peter's at 9:00 A.M., followed by ceremonies at the City Hall at 10:15 A.M. including the raising of the Irish Flag by Mayor of the Day, Jim Bruck. All are invited.

The St. Patrick's Day Parade will be held on Sunday, March 11, immediately following the Shamrock Run. As usual, we will line up on the Clinton Avenue to Kingston Plaza hill. We should be there by about 12:00 Noon. You may invite relatives/friends to march with us. We need volunteers to sign in the various units at Chic's in the plaza beginning at 10:00 A.M. Please notify Kathleen Houghtaling (338-8980) if you can help. Parade attire is black or white pants (no jeans), Irish sweater or LAOH fleece jacket and tams. Kathleen Mihm has arranged for a trolley for any members who wish to ride. There are 123 LAOH members! Please let's try to have a record number of members participating in the parade. We also hope that everyone will attend the "Hooley at the Hall" at the White Eagle Hall following the parade. The "Shamrock Plant Delivery" is scheduled for Saturday, March 10 at 10:00 A.M. beginning with breakfast at the Dietz Stadium Diner. Call Pat Coyne (853-2317) or Pat Clausi (332-7037) or patriciasullivanclausi@gmail.com if you want to be a part of this fun and rewarding event. After breakfast, we will break up into groups to visit our friends who need some cheering up! We are excited that anyone who wishes to do so will be able to get her degree on April 21. The LAOH is hosting a Degree Team who will come to Kingston at a place to be announced. Those who do not have their degree should make an effort to participate. More information is forthcoming. Those who already have their degree may attend and observe.

On Sunday, February 18, a Cup, Corks and Canvas Fundraiser was held at the White Eagle Hall. It was a great success with 42 people participating. A profit of $700 was made. We thank Chrissie Wrixon, Pam Boyle and Gail Wurster for chairing this event, and we are appreciative to all those who participated.

Please always remember to reach out to our membership if you are in need of prayers or some kind of help. At one time or another, we all need assistance. Please notify Jean Steuding (331-0386 or jjsteuding45@hvc.rr.com) if you want a member's name included in the newsletter. At this time, please pray for Mary Boyle, Lori Manfro (Sue Manfro's daughter-in-law) Clare Egan and Mimi Croswell. Enjoy all the St. Patrick's Day events to the fullest! Flaunt that Irish pride! Not long after St. Patrick's Day, we approach the greatest day of all, the Feast of Easter! May the Joy of the Resurrection be a great source of hope and peace in your lives. To all LAOH members and your families, a most Blessed Easter!
